IMPORT AND EXPORT

Royal Evergreen Traders –Teams & Conditions

ROYAL EVERGREEN TRADERS

These Terms & Conditions govern all export transactions conducted by Royal Evergreen Traders, ensuring transparency and compliance with international trade standards.

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SALE

Effective Date: September 2026

1. General

These Terms & Conditions apply to all quotations, sales, purchase orders, Proforma Invoices, invoices, and export transactions of Royal Evergreen Traders (“Seller”) unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Seller and Buyer.

By placing an order, making payment, accepting the Proforma Invoice, or proceeding with shipment, the Buyer agrees to these Terms & Conditions.

2. Products & Specifications

All products shall be supplied according to the specifications, grade, quantity, packing, and quality agreed in the quotation or Proforma Invoice.

Agricultural commodities are natural products and may have reasonable variations in size, colour, moisture, appearance, and other characteristics within the agreed specifications.

3. Prices & Validity

All prices are quoted in the currency and on the Incoterm specified in the quotation.

Unless otherwise stated in writing, quotations are subject to market availability and may be revised due to changes in commodity prices, freight, exchange rates, taxes, government regulations, or other applicable costs.

The quotation validity period will be specifically mentioned in the quotation or Proforma Invoice.

4. Incoterms

International shipments shall be governed by the applicable Incoterms® 2020 rule stated in the quotation or Proforma Invoice.

For FOB shipments, the named port of shipment will be clearly specified, for example:

FOB Thoothukudi (Tuticorin) Port, India – Incoterms® 2020

Under FOB, the Seller is responsible for the agreed export-side obligations up to delivery on board the vessel, while costs and responsibilities after the agreed transfer point are borne by the Buyer in accordance with the applicable Incoterm.

5. Payment Terms

Payment terms shall be as agreed in the Proforma Invoice.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Seller may require:

- * 50%–60% advance payment by bank transfer to the Current Account to Current Account.
- * Balance payment before or against the agreed shipping documents/loading arrangement.

For transactions under Letter of Credit (LC), the LC must be irrevocable and acceptable to the Seller's bank and shall comply with the terms agreed in the Proforma Invoice.

All bank charges outside India shall be borne by the Buyer unless otherwise agreed.

6. Order Confirmation

An order shall be considered confirmed only after receipt of the required advance payment or acceptable payment instrument and written confirmation from Royal Evergreen Traders.

The Seller reserves the right to decline or cancel an order where payment requirements, documentation, compliance requirements, or other agreed conditions are not fulfilled.

7. Packing & Labelling

Products shall be packed according to the agreed specifications and export requirements.

Standard packing may include PP bags, jumbo bags, paper bags, or other packaging agreed between the Buyer and Seller.

Special packing, private labelling, branding, or additional packaging requirements may be subject to additional charges.

8. Quality & Inspection

The Seller shall make reasonable efforts to supply goods according to the agreed specifications.

Where a pre-shipment inspection is requested, the inspection shall be carried out by a mutually agreed independent inspection agency, and the inspection terms and costs shall be agreed before shipment.

Unless otherwise agreed, quality shall be assessed according to the specifications stated in the Proforma Invoice or sales contract.

9. Quantity & Weight

The quantity and weight shall be determined according to the agreed loading and shipping documents.

Minor operational variations in quantity or weight may occur where permitted by the agreed contract, packing method, shipping line requirements, or applicable regulations.

10. Shipment & Delivery

Estimated shipment dates are subject to product availability, payment confirmation, vessel availability, port operations, customs clearance, shipping line schedules, weather, and other circumstances beyond the Seller's reasonable control.

Any shipment date provided by the Seller is an estimated date unless expressly guaranteed in writing.

11. Shipping Documents

Depending on the transaction, the Seller may provide agreed export documents such as:

- * Commercial Invoice
- * Packing List
- * Bill of Lading / Sea Waybill
- * Certificate of Origin
- * Phytosanitary Certificate, where applicable
- * Fumigation Certificate, where applicable
- * Inspection Certificate, where agreed
- * Other documents specifically agreed in the Proforma Invoice or contract

Additional documents requested by the Buyer after order confirmation may be subject to additional costs and feasibility.

12. Taxes, Duties & Import Charges

The Buyer shall be responsible for import duties, customs clearance, destination charges, taxes, port charges, and other costs payable in the destination country unless expressly included in the agreed Incoterm.

Export-related taxes, duties, and charges shall be handled according to applicable Indian laws and the agreed Incoterm.

13. Insurance

Unless the agreed Incoterm specifically requires the Seller to arrange insurance, marine cargo insurance shall be the responsibility of the Buyer.

For FOB shipments, the Buyer is responsible for arranging appropriate marine cargo insurance after the risk transfer point.

14. Claims

Any shortage, visible damage, quality complaint, or discrepancy must be reported to the Seller in writing within the period specified in the sales contract or Proforma Invoice, together with supporting evidence.

Claims should include relevant photographs, videos, inspection reports, shipping documents, batch/lot information, and other evidence reasonably required by the Seller.

No claim shall be accepted for goods that have been consumed, resold, processed, or otherwise materially altered before inspection unless otherwise agreed in writing.

15. Cancellation

Once an order has been confirmed and procurement, processing, packing, or shipment arrangements have commenced, cancellation may be accepted only at the Seller's discretion.

Any non-refundable costs already incurred by the Seller shall be recoverable from the Buyer where applicable.

16. Delays & Force Majeure

Royal Evergreen Traders shall not be liable for delays or failure to perform caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to:

- * Natural disasters
- * Floods, storms, or adverse weather
- * War or civil unrest
- * Strikes or labour disruptions
- * Port congestion or closure
- * Vessel delays or cancellation
- * Government restrictions
- * Customs restrictions
- * Epidemics or pandemics
- * Shortage of raw materials
- * Transportation disruptions
- * Changes in laws or regulations
- * Other unforeseen events beyond reasonable control

The affected party shall notify the other party as reasonably practicable.

17. Compliance

Both parties shall comply with applicable laws, customs regulations, export and import regulations, sanctions, anti-bribery requirements, and other applicable trade laws.

The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the products can legally be imported into the destination country and that all necessary import permissions, licences, registrations, and approvals are available.

18. Product Use & Responsibility

The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the products are suitable for their intended use and comply with the regulations of the destination country.

The Seller shall not be responsible for losses arising from improper storage, handling, transportation, processing, or use of the goods after the applicable transfer of risk.

19. Confidentiality

Commercial information, pricing, documents, specifications, and other confidential information exchanged between the parties shall not be disclosed to third parties except where required for the performance of the transaction or by law.

20. Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Royal Evergreen Traders shall not be liable for indirect, consequential, incidental, or special losses arising from a transaction.

The Seller's liability, where legally applicable, shall be limited to the value of the affected goods unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

21. Dispute Resolution

The Buyer and Seller shall first attempt to resolve any dispute through good-faith negotiation.

If the dispute cannot be resolved amicably, it shall be subject to the applicable laws of India and the jurisdiction agreed in the sales contract or Proforma Invoice.

22. Amendments

Any modification to these Terms & Conditions must be agreed in writing by both parties.

In the event of any conflict between these Terms & Conditions and a specific written sales contract or Proforma Invoice, the specific agreed written terms shall prevail for that transaction.

23. Acceptance

By placing an order, making payment, signing or accepting the Proforma Invoice, or accepting delivery/shipment arrangements, the Buyer acknowledges and agrees to these Terms & Conditions.
